Foreword

The winds are blowing
The sheets are unfurled
The blue is beckoning on and on
The unsailed seas
Are calling.

The harbor we're leaving
The voyage begun
Adventure is waiting for you and me
In ports unknown
Life is calling.

SCHOOL SONG

By Mr. W. F. REYER
(Arrangement of "Sony of C")

When sight and sound of our castle
Fade in the long dreary years
You will recall in your hearts again
Memories of old songs and cheers
You who have stood for the old school
Placing her standards so high
You who have stood for fair square sport
Will hear her students cry

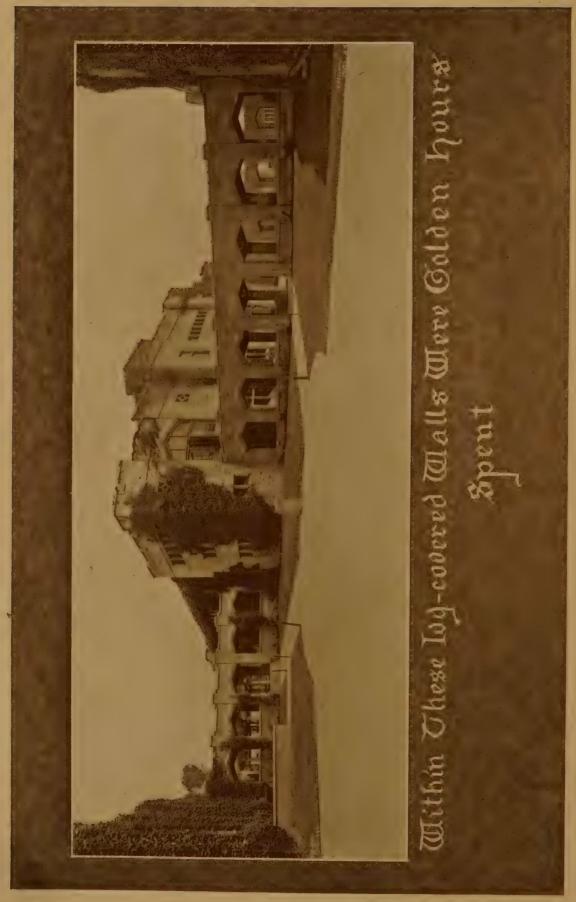

San Diego, San Diego, wave your banners high San Diego, San Diego, fight until you die We'll not forget you for you are true blue Standing always for right Hear her calling, calling to you ever Honor the Blue and White.

VER the seas to you comes this annual, the '27 Gray Castle. We do not say I that this is the best annual ever published—we only hope that—but we do say that, through diligent work and untiring cooperation of printer, engraver, photographer, and staff, we have tried to make the '27 Gray Castle distinctive—one which will long be remembered. When our little craft, with its crew of editors and managers, set sail in March, proudly floating its banner of Blue and White, the voyage ahead appeared calm and bright. But there were many rough seas to be crossed and many tempestuous gales to be weathered. Finally, however, the frail bark, gallantly buffing the winds, anchored on the Island of the Past. The crew, with pick and shovel, set to work to find, if they could, a certain treasure-chest. After months of exploration their diligent search was rewarded. They found, buried deep, this Chest of Memories, and as they flicked the leaves, they caught fleeting glimpses of old, familiar faces of once-loved Shipmates—of teachers who piloted them safely into port—of scenes and events long forgotten but still held dear—of unfulfilled dreams and tender memories—and, with a sigh in their hearts for those happy by-gone days, they stowed the chest on board and brought it back to you.

E MBARKING upon a hazardous three year journey, the Good Ship "Peagreen" set sail upon a fair day in September, 1924, with a green crew gathered from the four corners of the earth. Immediately after hoisting the anchor, Skipper John Donohue with First Mate, Don Barnes and Pilot John Phibbs, discovered a couple of stowaways in the hold who had boarded the ship previous to the arrival of the new crew. The two, upon being questioned, gave their names as Edward Moeller and Vic Buono, and announced their intention of remaining with the ship until its arrival in port.

To guard against mutiny and to settle any questions which might arise, Cy West was stationed in the stern. Typhoons arose but the ship was safely piloted through the first leg of the cruise. So able were the officers that the crew again chose them to skipper the ship. In deck sports of all kinds, the crew of the "Peagreen" showed up well against the rest of the fleet.

Safely rounding out the first year of the cruise, Skipper Donohue was commissioned to continue his duties. To assist him Mates Horace Thompson, John Phibbs, and Wilt Williams were chosen, while Art Ribbel was placed at the stern. Contributing a hearty crew to the competition in deck sports of the fleet, the ship made a good showing and was well rewarded with successive victories.

The old officers retiring from the life of mariners, an entire new set was selected to pilot the ship through its difficulties. Skipper Arthur Ribbel was aided in carrying out the duties of the ship by First Mate, Donald Knapp; Stewardess, Eleanor Parker; Pilot, Ed Shaw, with George Griffin at the stern. Despite a few losses due to sea-sickness, the crew fared well and approached the last leg of the journey in good spirits.

To steer the ship through the last lap of its cruise, and at last to guide it safely into the harbor, Skipper Ribbel was re-commissioned. On this trip he was assisted by First Mate, Ed Shaw; Stewardess, Eleanor Parker, and pilot Legler Benbough. Donald Knapp was stationed at the stern to sight approaching trouble. The trip was successfully made with only one or two changes in Navigation Commissioners. Now the ship, after having weathered every storm, is ready to enter port. The crew is casting glances backward to the Sea of Pleasant Adventures, thinking of the past, anticipating, yet fearing the future. The lighthouses are not numerous and the buoys are far apart, but the restless tide of the Sea of Life is calling, calling. The ship has put into port for a short while, only to be again—"sailing, not drifting—out of the harbor into deep channels."

HONOR ROLL

All students who have received 15 or more "one's" in solids during seven semesters' work are placed on the Senior A Honor Roll. As the average student carries four subjects each semester, 28 "one's" for the semester would make a perfect record. A few honor students who are able to carry more than four subjects sometimes receive more than the 28 "one's."

SENIOR A PLAY CAST

"SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE"

WHEN the Senior A Play Committee announced their choice of "Seven Keys to Baldpate" for the play of the June, 1927 graduating class, a full house and the success of the play were immediately assured. For a number of years the San Diego High School graduating classes have chosen comedy and romance for their Senior A Plays. This year, however, a delightful combination of mystery, comedy, romance and drama was presented.

The scenes of this interesting play were set in the "loneliest spot on earth"—Baldpate Inn, located on top of Mount Baldpate, in the dead of winter, at the witching hour of midnight.

A young novelist bet his friend five thousand dollars that he would be able to write a novel in twenty-four hours. The friend, the owner of Baldpate, suggested the Inn, which was closed for the winter, as a quiet place for the literary attempt, and gave the author the "only key in existence". Before the twenty-four hours had elapsed, however, it was evident that there was more than just one key. Villains, vamps, ghosts, crooks, policemen and newspaper reporters entered in rapid succession. Thousands of dollars were stolen and recovered. Finally the novelist, who did not believe in "love at first sight," fell in love with Mary, the pretty newspaper reporter. After an exciting climax the play ended in a laughable disclosure of the mystery.

The cast consisted of Edward Shaw and Morrey Levinson, double cast as the novelist, William H. Magee; Elijah Quimby and wife, the caretakers, played by Leglar Benbough and Ruth Englehorn, respectively; John Bland, the millionaire right hand man, William Lyons; Mary Norton, the newspaper reporter, Bernice Henton; Mrs. Rhodes, her chaperon, Marilyn Pendleton; Peters, the hermit of Baldpate, Joe Cohen; Myra Thornhill, the vampire blackmailer, Harriette Sargent; Lou Max, the mayor's man "Friday," Paul Schriebman; Jim Carigan, the crooked mayor of Renton, Otto Reutinger; Thomas Hayden, the Railway President, Arthur Ribbel; Jiggs Kennedy, the chief of police, Harold Runsvold; and the owner of Baldpate, Clement Barnard.

MARILYN PENDLETON AND GEORGIA PEARCE

("Kentucky Lullaby")

We know now
Trails must go
Many a way
Like the ships leaving the bay,
Through the years
Joy or tears
We will keep faith
With classmates true and teachers too
Fearlessly, loyally—

(Chorus)—

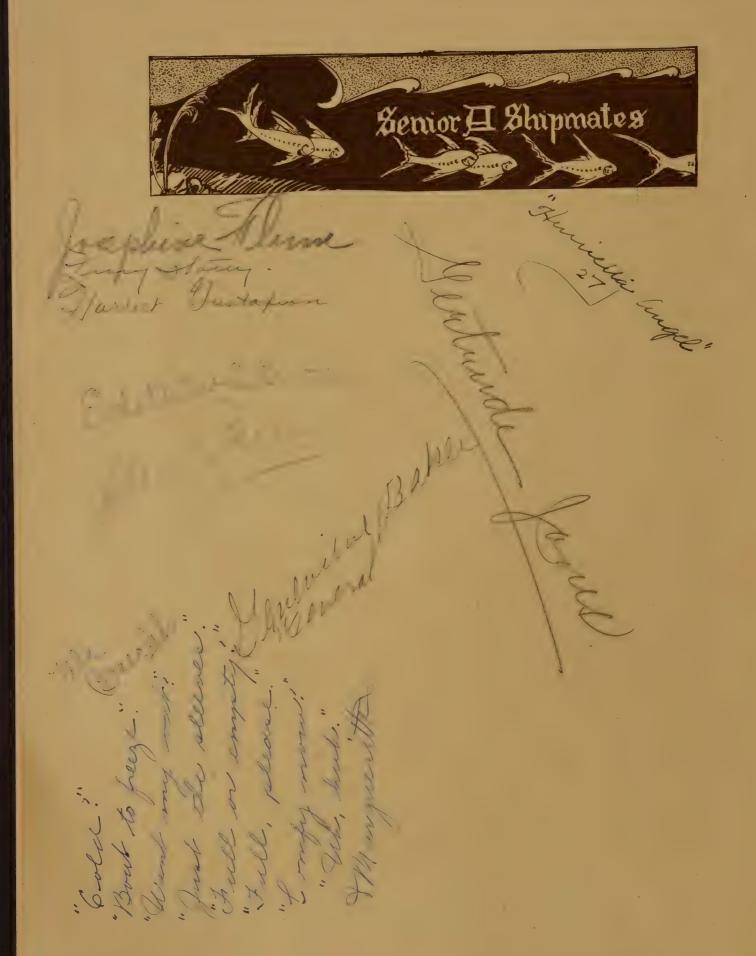

Dear San Diego High
Here's where we say goodbye
In all the years to come
You'll bring back mem'ries dear
Old San Diego High
We leave you with a sigh
In all we do, we'll think of you
Our own true White and Blue.

THE SENIOR B CLASS

PROMISING to continue the tradition of a lively group of January graduates, the Senior B Class has been active in every line of school affairs during the past semester. With Tom Mason at the head, the class has been successful in all activities in which it has participated. At the beginning of the term Chet Harritt was chosen Vice-President by a large majority; Maxine Wallihan was elected to fill the office of Secretary; and Miller Strait was chosen to carry on the duties of Treasurer. Ash West, who has been a member of the Ex-Committee ever since his arrival at Hilltop, was again selected to be the representative of the class.

The Senior B Class had a number of athletes in the inter-class sports, the Seniors as a whole winning the championship in track and baseball. From a variety of class rings presented by Paul Cassidy, Ring Chairman, the B's selected beautiful signet rings with the owners' initials in the center and the school numerals and initials at the side. Although they have not as yet definitely decided upon their sweaters, the the Chairman, Ethel Halvorsen, has been very busy selecting several appropriate styles of sweaters.

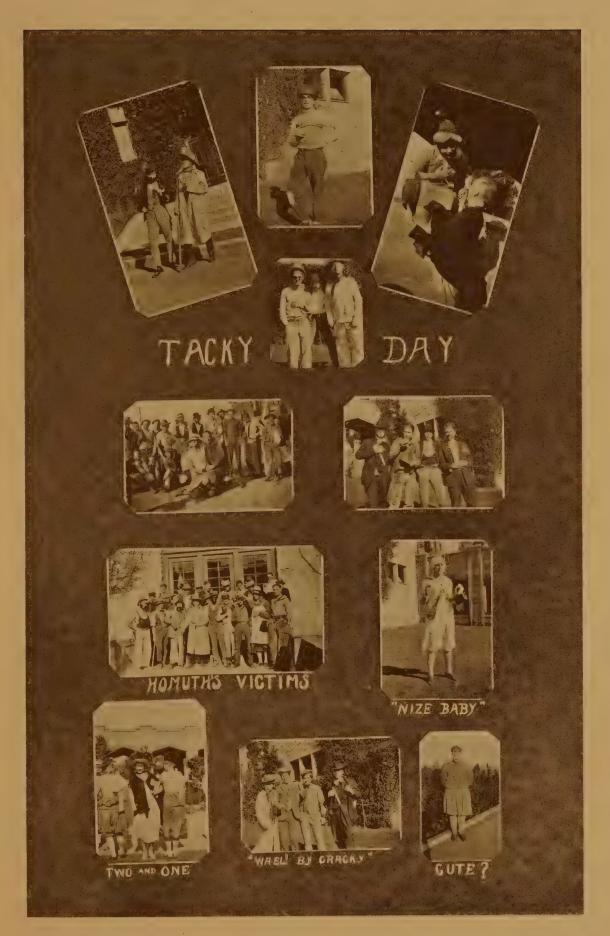

To represent them in the popularity contest held under the auspices of the Annual, the Senior B's chose Carol Woods as the most popular girl and Chet Harritt as the most popular boy.

The Senior B's from all present indications promise to uphold the excellent reputation that the Hilltop graduating classes have established for them since the first Senior A Class left the portals of the Gray Castle.

JUNIOR CLASS

UNDER the capable leadership of Harry Hays the Junior class has attained more than ordinary success this year. In all lines of endeavor the class of '28 has contributed its share in A. S. B. activities. In athletics especially, members of the Junior class have been outstanding—Butler, Haulman, Westland, Arnett, Joerndt, Tyler, Snider, Bair, and Heiney in football; Fletcher, Joerndt, E. Johnson, Cahn, Gundry, Snider, S. Johnson, and Dobbins in basketball; Captain Sinclair, Limon, Snider, Heiney, Rens, Jones, Rammage, Deacon, Dobbins, French, in track; Rammage, Dobransky, Dobbins, Joerndt, Clarckson, in baseball; Towseley, Williams, Kammeyer, Barley, in tennis; Ranson, Haulman, Geeting, Hill, Sheffield, Daley, in wrestling; Robinson, Edwards, F. Fletcher, and S. Fletcher in swimming.

As Sophomores the class of '28 came in second in the Cross-country, and lost Interclass football on a fluke. This year the Juniors won Interclass basketball, and were nosed out of Interclass track championship by three points.

The officers for the fall semester were Chet Harritt, president; Asley Joerndt, vice-president; Margaret Webster, secretary; Ashley West, treasurer; Jack Butler and Ashley West, Ex-committee. The officers for the spring semester were Harry Hays, president; Robert Limon, vice-president; Emery Saddler, secretary; William French, treasurer. Clara Louise Kelleher is Junior B representative to the Executive committee, while Jack Butler is the Junior A representative; Mike Dillon is Yell Leader. Coach Broderick has twice been chosen class advisor.

As the Juniors have excelled scholastically also, their future as Seniors lies broad and bright before them.

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

UPHOLDING the traditional "pea-green" spirit, the youngest class in the school has finished its first year at the Gray Castle, and has emerged with a great deal of pep and enthusiasm for its coming years at Hilltop. At the beginning of the term the members of the class elected Billy Casey to fill the office of president, with Marjorie Stewart, vice-president, Lawrence Pritchard, secretary-treasurer, and Bradley Woolman, ex-committee representative. Due to ineligibility, Billy Casey was required to give up the office which he held, and Bradley Woolman resigned from the ex-committee. Since it was so late in the semester, Marjorie Stewart carried on the duties of president, and no vice-president was chosen, the members of the class feeling that they could successfully finish the semester without another election.

For representatives of the class in the popularity contest, the Sophomore B's chose Geraldine Ames and Lawrence Pritchard, and the A's selected Marjorie Stewart and Al Keumsted. Although the candidates of the youngest class were not successful in winning the school-wide vote, they made an excellent showing, and placed the Sophomores on the map.

This year the class was made up of students from the three junior High Schools—Wilson, Memorial, and Roosevelt, and there has been some competition between the graduates of the three schools as to which would produce the best athletes and scholars. The Sophomore class was the largest class in school and, if its present standards of scholarship and school-spirit prevail, the class of '29 will be a banner graduating class.

Announcing the skirmish to be held the following day, a gigantic serpentine eeled its way to the shore, making more disturbance, than a howling Nor'wester.

The Seniors again manned the decks and many frivolous Sea-Dogs were seen making knots through the North Court.

November 24

Preparatory to berthing for Thanksgiving, the Boys' Federation sponsored a drive, filling many chests for the needy.

The annual Hi-Jinx went over in ship-shape style, bringing much credit to the fairer sex.

Learned deck-hands, forsaking studies, showed the crew that Timalathians CAN stage a dance.

Signor Marcelli and his orchestra gave the Good Ship a first rate concert and spread S.D.H.S. fame on the four winds.

"The Goose Hangs High", presented by the Senior Salts, was a whale of a success.

Shattering maritime history, the whole crew mutinied and, casting off their uniforms, sported about the decks in togs wonderful to behold.

December 17

At 5 bells, four learned deck hands manned the row boats and set sail for the Timalathian convention at Riverside.

January 8

The lordly Seniors, A.W.O.L., forsook the bounding blue, and sported all day in the snowy mountains.

With smiles mingled with salty tears the Crew of Senior A's were given their sheepskins and bid a fortunate "Bon Voyage".

January 29

Before retiring from the gay sea life, the Senior Salts flung their biggest dance in the forecastle of the ship La Jolla.

Sunrise found the crew again scrubbing decks. Mustered together, each class selected its boatswain. A. Ribbel was chosen to pilot the First Class Passengers.

February 16 and 17

The Good Ship S.D.H.S. was caught in one of the goldarndest typhoons that ever whistled through an old sea salt's whiskers, causing the ship to take refuge in the land-locked harbor of Vacation.

At three bells four Pineywood singers were washed aboard and favored the crew with some splendid "vocaling".

Ho! Me Hearties! Again relieved from the tang of the sea in honor of the Father of Our Country.

Shortly after three bells the entire crew was summoned to the hatches to view the gallant land-lubbers, the R.O.T.C., parade.

Cruisers from the seven seas came aboard for a Boys' Federation Convention. A jolly hop was staged for the visiting tars.

Our muscular wrestlers fought to determine their champion before the assemblage in the Hold, after which some of the crew narrowly escaped a visit to Davy Jones's locker when a jack-tar named Moeller accidentally-on purpose let fly a fearful discus.

Twenty-eight of the fair sex forsook the ship for northern waters when they voyaged to Long Beach for the Annual Play Day.

March 25

At last! Rounding the Cape, the biggest event of the cruise was sighted—the A.S.B. Ball! The ship's crew, off watch for the night, danced and jigged in the frozen North till early dawn.

Even sailors will be fools. The literary lights scribed a parchment entitled "The Muss"—by far the best edition of their weekly efforts.

Skirts and flopping sailor-pants hornpiped at the Dramatic Club April Fool dance.

Mess consisted of Mulligan stew for the lucky deckhands, off watch, who attended the big joint picnic at El Monte.

Nautical awards given to our worthy athletes.

May 2-May 6

Courtesy week. No one allowed to slide down the hatches, cut the ropes, loosen the sails, play with the anchor, or throw a shipmate overboard. Penalty—to walk the plank.

May 3

Shiver my timbers! What a whale of a show "Milestones" turned out to be.

May 13

The bronzed tars who carry the blue and white over the billowing waves into port after port of victory, staged their annual "Varsity S" dance on Friday, the thirteenth, thereby off-setting all tales of superstitious mariners.

May 22

Manning the row boats, forty frisky tars belonging to the Variety Club sailed over the bounding main to the Coronado Islands.

May 26

The First and Second Class Passengers, and even the Steerage, tussled on the decks over the much coveted pig-skin.

Signs of "Spring Fever" also attacked other members of the crew. Even the veteran whiskers were seen sniffing the tang of the sea.

May 26 and 27

Even sailors can be cavemen. Never before did an old jack-tar see SUCH a performance. "Ingomar, the Barbarian," beat them all by 40 knots, or I'm no son o' a seafarin' Cap'n!

May 28

Winding up the season in second place, the blustering baseballers hurled their last.

May 31

First Class Passengers A.W.O.L. The following day the whole crew was in a state of mutiny, due to sunburn, sore muscles, etc., etc.

June 17

The Mates of the top deck, throwing books and pencils overboard, bade "Farewell" to their Alma Mater. Remaining passengers looked on with envious eyes.

Generously dispensing with their booty, the worthy Seniors gave out their bounteous spoils with many a laugh and cheer.

Receiving their discharge papers with smiling faces, but with trembling fingers, the Senior Salts made for the land with many a backward sniff.

At the toll of Graduation, the Good Ship '27 was anchored, and the retiring crew flung such a dance as the seven seas have never before seen. At the call of 'Nine bells—all's well' 378 hoary salts bade an affectionate "Bon Voyage" and parted for unknown seas.

Organizations

In the harbor of San Diego High School, a thousand crafts—both large and small—ply daily. There is scarcely a subject which is of interest to high school students which does not have an an organization as a medium of its expression. There is not a student in the high school who is not, in some way, connected with some one of the many school clubs, organizations, or outside activities which make the school the live, interesting, progressive institution which it is.

THE Good Ship A. S. B., with a record crew of 2,800, has just arrived in port after another successful year's cruise.

During the first half of the voyage, the vessel was manned by Captain Bob Driver; First Mate, Mary Powell; Keeper of the Log, Margaret Webster; Paymaster, Melba Blair; Purser, Dick Nida; while Jane France recorded events of interest on the cruise. The first-class passengers were represented by Stanley Christopher and George Griffin, the second-class passengers by Ashley West and Jack Butler, and the third-class passengers by Bradley Woolman.

Upon completing the first leg of the journey, the command was transferred into the hands of Captain Wilton Williams. Dick Nida became first Mate; Carol Woods, Keeper of the Log; Melba Blair, Paymaster; Nelson Masten, Purser; and Ruth Miller, Recorder of Events enroute. The first-class passengers were represented by Donald Knapp and Ashley West; second-class passengers by Jack Butler and Clara Louise Kelleher, and third-class passengers by Bradley Woolman and Billy Wetzel. Mr. Peterson and Mr. Johnston, veteran sea captains, assisted in guiding the ship through rough and glassy seas.

Those accused of mutiny and A. W. O. L. were made to walk the plank by the Merit Committee composed of Mary Powell, George Griffin, Steve Fletcher, Mr. Johnston, and Miss Freese. A Student Advisory Board, created during the spring administration, investigated many of the cases and regulated unjust sentences.

For the possible emergency of fire aboard ship, a Fire Department was organized with Weldon Thomas as fire chief, Ashley West, Jack Butler, John Donohue, Bradley Woolman, Billy Wetzel and Leglar Benbough as lieutenants.

An A. S. B. Council, composed of representatives from each stateroom, was also created during the spring administration, and placed at the bow of the ship to report to and advise the ship's commanding officers.

Due to the able seamanship of Captain Wilton Williams, the ship was never allowed to drift in a calm, but made many knots in the direction of progressive activity. A coast league program circuit, created by Captain Williams, drew the several ships of the Coast League Fleet into a closer friendship and greater understanding by an exchange of interesting programs.

A magnificent A. S. B. ball attended by almost every member of the crew was given in April at the American Legion Building in Balboa Park. This affair was only one of the successful social functions backed by the A. S. B. during the year's cruise.

Every loyal member of the crew purchased his passport, an A. S. B. coupon book, which admitted him to the many school activities given, among them the various athletic games, the A. S. B. Ball, the Hi-Jinx, and the A. S. B. Play, "Ingomar, the Barbarian", and which privileged him to vote for candidates for the ensuing year's officers.

STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD

FIRE DEPARTMENT
A. S. B. COUNCIL

URING the past semester the Boys' Federation, with a membership of over 1400, has achieved, through the cooperation of the third period representatives, greater success than in any previous semester.

The most appropriate way to show the advancement of this organization is to give a resume of the semester's accomplishments. The first event of importance was the Sophomore Welcome Party, sponsored by the Personal Service Committee, whose chairman, Harold Runsvold, Faculty Advisor, Mr. Williams, and Sub-Committee chairman, Harold Galbraith, did their utmost to give a party the incoming students would long remember.

The Boys' Federation Coast League Convention, in which eight schools were represented, materially strengthened the bond of friendship between schools. Perhaps the most successful event of the semester was the Boys' Hi-Jinx, under the School Service Committee, with Paul Cassidy, chairman; Mr. Hammond, Faculty advisor and Paul Howard, manager. The Boys' Hi-Jinx Committee labored untiringly, producing an unusually good show and netting the Boys' Federation enough money to carry on the semester's work. The most recent event, a party for the orphanage, was successfully carried out by the Public Service Committee, with Melvin Troop as chairman, Mr. Deere as Faculty advisor and Charles Wilson as Sub Committee chairman. Many more events have taken place during the semester, the above being only the most important.

The present officers of the Boys' Federation are as follows: president, George Griffin; vice-president, Julius Sanders; secretary, Bromley Smith; treasurer, Joe Cohen; the chairmen of the committees are: School Service, Paul Cassidy; Public Service, Melvin Troop; Student Cooperative, John Phibbs; Personal Service, Harold Runsvold. Boys who were active Cabinet members during the first semester of the school year but are no longer Cabinet officers, are: Cy West, Don Knapp, Paul Schreibman, Tom Mason and Harold Galbraith. The present Cabinet owes much to these students for the splendid work accomplished by them in the preceding semester.

The organizers of the Boys' Federation saw that more work could be accomplished if the responsibility were distributed. Consequently on the Cabinet are four committee chairmen who appoint their sub committee chairmen. The following are the committees and sub-committees which make up the complete organization: first, Personal Service, which deals with boys individually. Under this committee is the Blues Committee which sends flowers and books to boys who are sick, disconsolate, or in any way "blue," and the Welcome Committee, which welcomes the new students endeavoring to become acquainted with the High School. Second is the School Service Committee, which aims to serve the school. The Hi-Jinx Committee, and the Visiting Committee come under this. Another is the Public Service Committee, which aims to serve the public in such ways as helping the Associated Charities; the Student Cooperative Committee which appoints locker and lunch line guards and ushers for assemblies is the fourth committee. All work is done with the purpose of serving the boys of San Diego High School.

The Cabinet wishes to take the opportunity to thank Mr. Johnston, former viceprincipal, for his wonderful cooperation with the Boys' Federation. We can truthfully say that he has been the greatest factor in making the Boys' Federation what it is today. We appreciate his efforts along this line and believe that he will be long remembered by the boys who worked with him.

BOYS' HI-JINX

THE Boys' Hi-Jinx of this semester, given on the evening of April 8, proved to be one of the most successful vaudeville shows that have been presented for the past twelve years. The show had the largest attendance and the largest financial return obtained by any school activity in the new Russ Auditorium. This unusual success was probably due to the large advertising campaign that was put on preceding the show, when six of the boys played at the Pantages Theatre for one week. Paul Howard managed the Hi-Jinx, and Mr. Hammond was faculty advisor.

Paul Cassidy's orchestra started the performance with four snappy pieces and a clog dance by Eddie McMahon; Robertson Clark & Kenneth Carson impersonated two negroes in a curtain act. A clever farce which turned out to be a screamingly funny melodrama was then put on by six leading Hilltoppers which was followed by an accordion solo played by Sumner McKnight. Irving Gregory then favored the audience with his harmonica; two alumni presented a tumbling act; Jack McPherson gave a monologue entitled "Mr. Cohen's First Telephone Call," and The Variety Trio, including Scot Palmer, Barney De Selm, and Paul Cassidy, presented an act which was the outstanding number of the performance. The last act, Bud Lundy's band, climaxed the evening by rendering several of the latest jazz numbers, while Max Wilson danced the light fantastic.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

DURING the fall semester of 1926 the Girls' League was very active. The first event of the League was a dance given the second week of school in honor of the new girls. On November 11, the League aided in the presentation to the school of the bronze memorial tablet purchased by the Girls' League of 1925. This was followed by the convention of the Southern California Federation of Girls' Leagues at Monrovia to which the League sent Joy Erickson, Jean Sullivan and Miss Himes, Faculty Advisor. The Girls' High Jinx which was the last big event of the semester, was presented in the Russ Auditorium, November 24. It proved to be a big success financially, and many clever, original acts made it one of the best High Jinx in years.

The Social Service Committee, of which Jean Sullivan was chairman, engaged in very worthwhile work especially around Christmas time. During the holiday season, it purchased fruit, flowers, a Christmas tree for the Naval Hospital, toys and candy for the Children's home, and gave a party for the children of the Neighborhood House. The Committee also gave a tea for the South Pasadena Football Team after the game here in November. This was a most delightful social affair.

The cooperative committee of which Joy Erickson was chairman aided the Merit

Committee in preserving order throughout the school.

The activities of the Girls' League for the spring semester started with the Big and Little Sister get-together party which was held at the Rho Delta auditorium.

One of the main objects of the Girls' League for the semester was cooperation. This idea was carried out in all activities. The Girls' League helped with the most successful social event of the season, the A. S. B. Ball. A dance was given for the members of the Boys' Federation Conference in March. A reception committee was formed whereby each visiting team was served sandwiches and chocolate in the school cafeteria, and entertained by the High School Orchestra after the game. Prominent girls of the school acted as hostesses on these occasions.

Frequent meetings were held and the girls enjoyed many interesting assemblies in the new auditorium. The Social Service Committee did exceptionally good work under the vice-president, Elinore Nida, and advisor, Miss Ruth Price.

A Mothers' and Daughters' Banquet was given in the High School Cafeteria late in the spring at which many Hilltoppers and their mothers were present. An amendment to the constitution was made, whereby a member elected by the G. A. A. was to be a permanent member of the board of control. The vice-president of the A. S. B. is honorary member of the board if the officer is a girl.

The officers for the semester were: Mary T. Powell, president; Elinore Nida, vice-president; Marilyn Pendleton, secretary; Billy Zeiss, treasurer; Doris Swain, Senior representative; Dorothy Kuhn, Junior representative and Hazel O'Keefe, Sophomore representative.

The Girls' League board of control wishes to thank Miss Freese for her sympathy and untiring efforts in her work for the girls of the San Diego Senior High School.

"THE RUSS"

STARTING the fall semester under the capable leadership of Arthur Ribbel, formerly Assistant editor and Sports editor of the paper, "The Russ", the San Diego High School Weekly, has continued to publish a sheet worthy of consideration. As his assistants Arthur appointed Harriette Sargent news editor, George Griffin, sports editor, and Frank Culver in charge of heads and makeup. On the business end of the staff were Austin Nipper, business manager and Joe Knoles, advertising manager. Many new features were introduced into the editions of that semester, all of which added greatly both to the appearance and to the content of the paper. Although no special editions were put out, the Senior A number and the Junior Russ were well received as changes from the regular issue.

Elected by the Ex-Committee at the first of the spring semester, Harriette Sargent took over the duties of Editor-in-Chief of The Russ, and ably upheld the high standard of the paper. Assisting her were Frank Culver, Assistant editor, Newton Rozzelle, Managing editor, and George Medlicott, News editor. George Herrick and Nelson Fisher handled the Sports, while Austin Nipper and Paul Howard attended to the business affairs of the paper.

tended to the business affairs of the paper.

The annual "razz" number was this semester called "The Muss", and was cleverly carried out as an April Fool edition, published on April first. On May twentieth the Juniors, under Frank Culver, published a Junior Russ, and on June seventeenth the Senior A's, under George Herrick, put out their semi-annual edition.

Through all the hardships and difficulties of the paper, Mr. Holman, faculty advisor, has been a patient and capable guide. The success of the Russ has been due in a large measure to his efforts, and the staff wishes to take this opportunity of thanking him. Mr. Romer, and the members of the printing classes, who have so ably assisted in carrying out the system of having the linotyping done at the school by the students, and to the members of the Journalism class, the staff wishes to extend hearty thanks, for without them "The Russ" could never have been the splendid success it has turned out to be.

CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION, CHAPTER 18

TIMALATHEAN SOCIETY

'HE TIMALATHEAN SOCIETY of the San Diego High School is recognized as I one of the most successful chapters of the California Scholarship Federation. It has gradually assumed deserved prominence in the San Diego High School. Membership each semester is open to those who have maintained high standards of scholarship during the preceding semester.

Among the activities of the fall semester were several sales, an assembly held under the auspices of the Timalathean Society, representation at the state convention at Riverside and the semi-annual Ditch Day.

During the spring semester the object of the Timalathean Society was to add to the Student Aid Fund. By giving hot dog, candy, watermelon, and other sales, considerable sums were raised for that purpose. The annual spring banquet, a Student Body Assembly, and a big dance were other features of the term. The spring ditch day was especially well supported by the membership of 60. During the whole semester plans and preparations were made for the California Scholarship Federation convention to be held here next winter.

Mrs. Olga Hamman has for several years been Faculty Advisor of the Timalathean Society. She has always been interested, willing and sympathetic, and is greatly loved and appreciated by the members of the Honor Society.

Officers for fall semester 1926-7: President, Ann Clancy; vice-president, Katherine Weiskotten; secretary, Margaret Leopold; treasurer, Maynard Anderson; chairman of activities committee, Jack Zahn; publicity, Robert Baskerville.

THE JUNIOR AMPHION CLUB

THE Junior Amphion Club is one of the largest organizations in the school, having seventy-five to one hundred members. This club is composed of those students who are interested in, and who appreciate the finer types of music. Its membership is one that is continually growing, so rapidly, in fact, that a larger meeting place is being considered.

The club has its meetings regularly on those days set aside for club activities. The meetings are events looked forward to with great enthusiasm by each member, and as all students are welcome, new members are seen every meeting. The meetings are an opportunity as well as an entertainment, since the talent that is offered is local and often given by talented members of the club. These splendid programs are arranged by a program committee which is well acquainted with the musical talent of the school and city. The different programs present a variety of musical talent in the form of vocal and instrumental chamber music, and interesting chats on music appreciation.

The club has its own corps of student officers and a faculty advisor. It has indeed been very fortunate in having for its faculty advisor one so important and widely acquainted with music as Nino Marcelli. The officers are carefully selected each semester. The present officers have held their respective positions for two semesters excepting the position of Program Chairman, which for the first semester was successfully filled by Mary Alice Daniels, a graduate of the Class of January '27. Her place was filled by Martha Brace during the spring term, and under her direcdelightful programs have been arranged.

The officers for the past two semesters were as follows: President, Garry White; vice-president, Leo Scheer; secretary, Caroline Allwardt; treasurer, Hilton Parks; and Martha Brace, chairman of the program committee.

It is the hope of the officers of the Junior Amphion Club that when the membership has increased to about three hundred each member will purchase a membership card for fifty cents. The money received from these membership cards will be expended to bring great artists before the members of the club.

THE ORCHESTRAL SOCIETY

THE Orchestral Society of San Diego High School is composed of the members of the High School Orchestra and is one of the most energetic organizations in the institution. The tri-annual symphony concerts given by this organization in the Russ Auditorium and Spreckels Theatre are events looked forward to by the many professional artists and music lovers of San Diego.

These concerts, under the direction of Nino Marcelli, offer to the public only the best of classical compositions. The seventy-five to one hundred individuals seated in front of the conductor are offered the opportunity of becoming well acquainted with such pieces as Liszt's "Les Preludes," Tschaikowsky's "March Slav," Wagner's "Rienzi Overture," Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony" and countless others.

The San Diego High School Orchestra forms the nucleus for the annual out-door concert in the park when the orchestra is augmented by the Beginners' Orchestra of the High School, and the Junior High School Orchestras. These form a group of over two hundred youthful musicians. Each year they present a concert of semi-classical numbers at the mammoth out-door organ in Balboa Park for the approval of the music loving public.

The Senior High School Orchestra is frequently called on to furnish the music for luncheons of various down town organizations, and in this way has become very popular.

As an advertising asset to the High School, the orchestra is unsurpassed by any other school organization. In the past, concerts have been given at Pomona and Santa Ana, where they have been enthusiastically received by people of high musical standing.

Each semester the Orchestral Society elects a corps of officers and enjoys a dance and boat ride. During the past year the officers were: J. Robert McAvoy, president; Kathryn Zeiss, secretary; Richard Allphin, treasurer; Robert Mueller, business manager, and Francis Jaeger, librarian.

BAND

THIS year the San Diego High School Band has more than succeeded in upholding the fine reputation it has established in the few years of its organization. With the largest membership in the history of the organization, totalling more than fifty members, the Band has brought credit to itself and to the San Diego High School many times by its numerous successful appearances.

Much of the credit for the successes recently achieved by the Band is due to its director, Mr. H. Dudley Nashold. It was the ambition of Mr. Nashold when he organized the first band in February, 1924, to build it up into an organization capable of presenting concerts of the highest caliber. Today the band has developed into an organization capable of playing the highest type of music. A great deal of this success is due to the interest shown by the members of the band.

The Band is a unit of the R. O. T. C., and joins in all the military demonstrations of the regiment. One period a week is devoted to drill work under Sergeant Halloway and Drum Major Spainhower.

R. O. T. C. Band officers are: Major Jack Spainhower, detailed to the band as drum major; Captain Randall Boss; First Lieutenant Curtis Imlay; and Second Lieutenants Gerald Banks and Edwin Moon.

Band officers are: Robert Mueller, president; Randall Boss, vice-president; Curtis Imlay, secretary; Michael Dillon, treasurer.

The Junior Band, an organization of 40 members, furnishes material for the advanced band. This Junior organization plays with a great deal of skill and is far from being a beginners' organization.

Junior Band officers are: Joe Cottrell, president; Arnold Strellie, vice-president; Adelbert Fernald, secretary and treasurer.

UKELELE CLUB

THE Ukulele Club, one of the largest clubs in San Diego High School, has been one of the peppiest organizations at the Gray Castle this year. During the club meetings various members have entertained the club members with clever numbers and special features.

The purpose of this club is to give enjoyment to those who play the ukulele, and to learn novel ukulele variations of popular pieces. Several months ago the club broadcast an interesting hour's program over KFSD and gained so much popular approval that they have been requested to broadcast again.

Mr. Judy, the popular sponsor of the Ukulele club, and Mrs. Judy, have chaper-oned the many gay social affairs put on by the club and various club members. Miss Charlotte Lawrence entertained the whole club at her home at a delightful evening party. Miss Isabel Granados, president, held "Open House" for the club members, and Miss Esther Huebner gave a surprise party for Johnny Walker, a peppy member, at which many club members were present. A number of picnics have been held at El Monte, where a rollicking good time was had by all who attended.

A great deal of the success of the club is due to the officers, Isabel Granados, President; Claire Ambler, Vice-President; Genevive Stout, Treasurer; and William Romero, Secretary, who have kept the enthusiasm and fine spirit of the club at a high pitch all semester.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

THE DRAMATIC CLUB was organized at the beginning of the fall term of this year by students interested in Dramatic Art, and since its organization has grown steadily until it has become the largest club in the school. The purpose of the club is to sponsor entertainments put on by the drama classes and to create an appreciation of the finer points of drama.

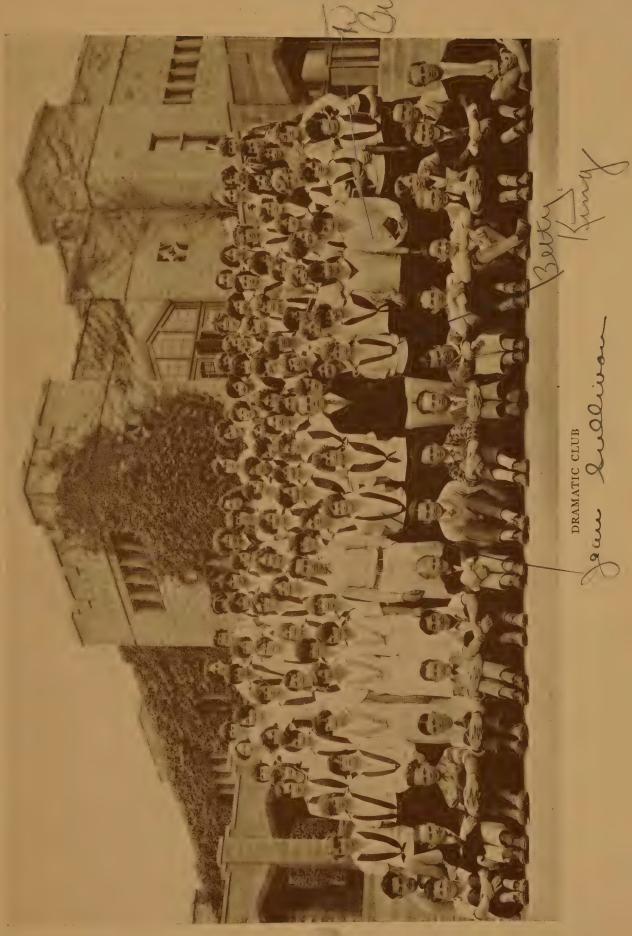

The officers of the Dramatic Club for the fall semester were: president, Robley Veale; vice-president, Jean Sullivan; secretary, Marcia Hill; treasurer, Betty Kind. Officers for the spring semester were: president, Jack McPherson; vice-president, Jean Sullivan; secretary, Elinore Nida; and treasurer, Norman Veale. Miss Perkins, head of the Dramatic Department, has been sponsor of the club.

At its meetings during the past year, the Dramatic Club has enjoyed many charming programs. A number of fine plays have been enacted by the students of the Dramatic classes and members of the Club. At one of the meetings of the spring semester, a very interesting talk and demonstration on "The Art of Make-Up" was given by Mr. Eddie Lawrence of the Savoy Theater.

Several drives took place during the year to acquire a fitting wardrobe and properties for dramatic work in the High School. There has also been hope of furnishing the Little Theater with rugs and comfortable furniture. With this aim in the minds of the club members, the drives have proven quite successful.

A large number of students attended the Dramatic Club dance which was given in Choral Hall April First. A snappy orchestra and novelty dances helped to make the affair a very successful one.

Due to the able work of the officers of the club and the hearty cooperation of the members, unusual success has been attained. Many more enjoyable programs are being planned for the future and it is hoped that the present standard of enthusiasm will continue in the future.

GIRL RESERVES

PURPOSE: to create and maintain Christian ideals, socially and morally throughout the High School. "It's getting out and seeing things and doing things and being that helps a girl to live."

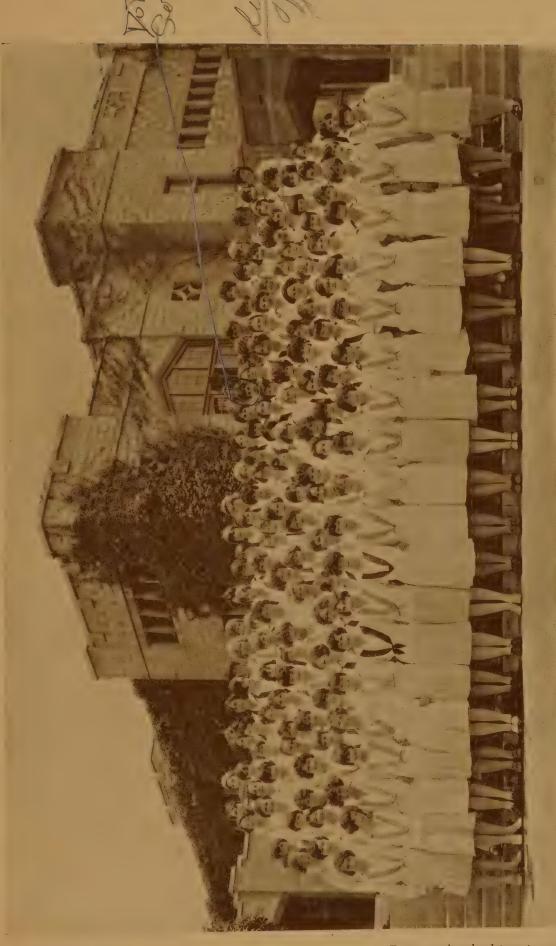

The Girl Reserves are eager for life. They want to live life freely, bravely, and colorfully. Their code, slogan, and purpose help them as they try "to find and give the best." The Girl Reserve movement, a part of the Y. W. C. A., is world-wide, being the largest organization in the world for 'teen age girls.

The Girl Reserve Club is outstanding in the San Diego High School, having a membership of nearly 200. It is divided into three triangles—Senior, Junior and Sophomore, each having its own set of officers. Each triangle has a supper meeting once a month, followed by a program and discussion. The Club as a whole meets at least once a month. The meetings are held in the attractive Girl Reserve Club Room at the new Y. W. C. A.

The theme for the year has been "The Quest." There was the Quest for Friends, for Knowledge, Service, Personality, etc. Some of the outstanding events of the year were the Charm Banquet, the G. R. Dance, the Dad and Daughter Banquet, the Mother and Daughter Luncheon, the Circus, the Garden Musicale, and the Girl Reserve Conference of Southern California held at El Centro. The Girl Reserves feel they have met with some success this year in their Quest for freer, braver, and more colorful life.

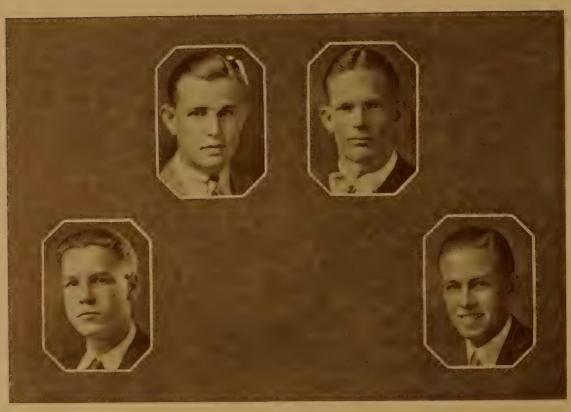

The splendid officers and advisors have greatly helped to make the club a unified organization. Miss Helen Dillon is the G. R. secretary. The advisor for the Senior Triangle is Miss Dora Agee; for Junior, Miss Miriam Paine and Miss Pauline Langston; for Sophomore, Miss Marion Montgomery. Mrs. E. E. Zeiss is the cabinet advisor. Officers: president, Mary Powell; vice-president, Eleanor Parker; secretary, Katherine Williams; treasurer, Kathryn Zeiss.

"From North to farthest South, from East to distant West Ours is the surest Quest; we know the one we follow."

HI-Y

COMPLETION of one of the greatest years of service work in the school, the church, and the community, was made June seventh, when the last HI-Y meeting of the school year was held. Melvin Troop, president of the club, presided.

Beginning with the first meeting of the club last September, a reorganization program was started which has been increasing in size and spirit with every meeting. The present number of active members is very close to seventy-five.

Group activities within the club were headed by Wilbur Folsom, president of the Athletes, and Neilson Masten, president of the Mission Hills group. Both groups accomplished much for the school, such as helping with the decorations for the A. S. B. Ball and keeping order in assemblies.

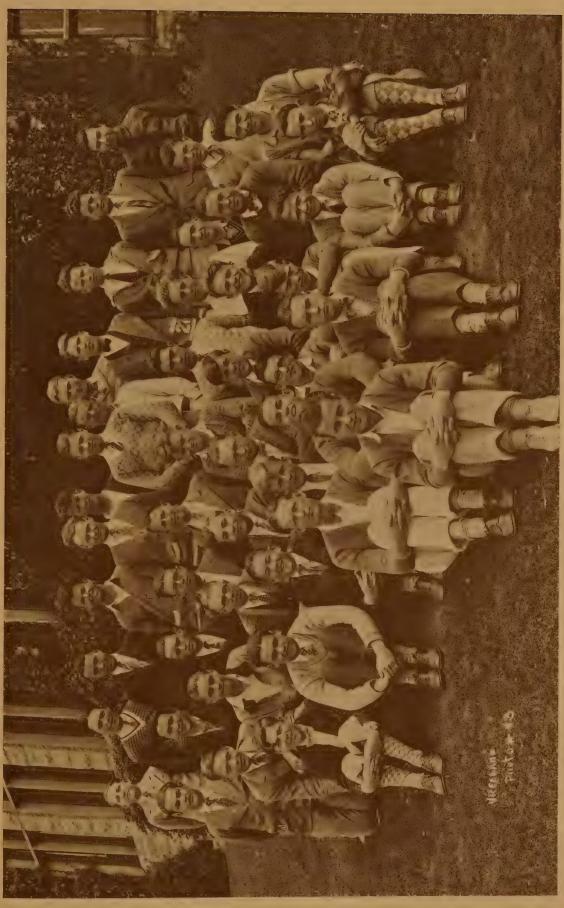

About twenty-five Hi-Yer's attended each of the annual Older Boys' Conferences which were held at Glendale and Escondido on November 26-28 and March 5 and 6 respectively. "Adventures in Living," the theme on which the conferences were based, was carried out in all speeches and discussions.

During the semester several gala evening affairs were held. The members of the club entertained their mothers with a delightful dinner May 12. On the 21st of the same month Ladies' Night was held.

On the 26 of April a HI-Y-Girl Reserve assembly was held in the auditorium. Leland G. Stanford, well known attorney, addressed the students on the subject of Leadership. The purpose of the assembly was to bring before the minds of the students an idea of the work carried on by the clubs.

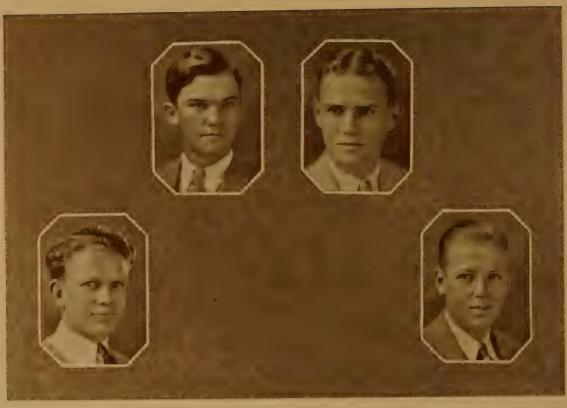

The officers for the fall semester were Richard Nida, president; Bromley Smith, vice-president; Jay Thompson, secretary; and Neilson Masten, treasurer. The officers for the spring semester were Melvin Troop, president; Frank Jorgensen, vice-president; Ronald Millar, secretary; and Neilson Masten, treasurer.

BOOK EXCHANGE

BESIDES being a good paying proposition, the Book Exchange, run for and by the students of the San Diego High School, renders a great service to the Hill-toppers. It provides material and equipment at moderate prices, retaining ten per cent of the monthly profits for the maintenance of the Exchange. At the head of this institution is a manager who receives fifteen dollars a month in return for his duties. This year the position is very capably filled by Lovell Williams who succeeded Bob Driver as manager.

The Book Exchange is a regular supply store where almost anything in the line of school supplies may be obtained from pennants to padlocks. In meeting student needs it has proved to be a most convenient asset to the school.

Selling school supplies is not the only office of the Book Exchange. It maintains a show-case where rings, pins, and trophies may be displayed. It also assists in selling tickets for plays and athletic events and tags for the Annual.

The members who were responsible for the splendid management of the Book Exchange during the past semester were: Manager, Lovell Williams; Ed. Shaw, Ferdinand Fletcher and Arnold Fleet, clerks.

CAFETERIA

THE largest and, undoubtedly, the most popular institution of the Gray Castle is the school Cafeteria, under the supervision of the Board of Education, where approximately two thousand students daily obtain their lunches.

Mrs. Shann, who has managed the Cafeteria for several years, has very successfully succeeded in supplying the students with a large variety of wholesome, appetizing food at remarkably reasonable prices, for it is the aim of the Cafeteria to offer food to the students at cost.

There are five "lunch lines", one for the teachers and two for the students inside the cafeteria, and two lines outside in the Cafeteria court where excellent cold lunches may be obtained.

About fifty-five students are employed in assisting the cafeteria in serving, cashiering, and collecting dishes during the two lunch periods. For their services, these students receive a twenty-five cent lunch each day. There is also a regular force of fourteen employees.

Mrs. Shann and her staff of workers have always been very willing to assist school activities in giving dinners and entertainments, and the students appreciate their splendid co-operation.

THE SPANISH CLUB

AFTER a late start, the Spanish Club with a membership of fifteen, met to elect officers. Business meetings have been held each regular club day. At these meetings Spanish songs by Jack Hoheisal have been introduced and enjoyed by the members. On several occasions Senor Cardenas made interesting talks on Mexico, and opportunities for Spanish speaking students in Mexico.

The club has sponsored two successful tamale sales during the year. It was not necessary to collect dues as the tamale sales netted enough for annual representation as well as a sum of money to be given to the Boys' Gym Fund.

Although small, the Spanish Club has been one of the peppiest organizations of the school. Senora McClelland has served as Faculty advisor. The officers for the first semester were: Agnes English, president; Jack Hoheisal, vice-president; Ola Goodwine, secretary-treasurer, and Albert MacDowell, chairman of the Entertainment Committee. The officers for the second semester were: President, Agnes English; vice-president, Melvin Troop; secretary-treasurer, Ola Goodwine, and Entertainment Committee, Albert MacDowell.

THE EUROPEAN TRAVEL CLUB

THE European Travel Club under the sponsorship of Mrs. Frances A. Reed has become one of the most prominent and popular clubs in San Diego High School, due to the splendid stereopticon slides and lectures given by its sponsor. The membership has steadily increased from twelve to one hundred and fifty pupils.

Talks on the historical background, social customs, palaces, and lake districts of England, Scotland and Italy; glaciers, mountains and flora of Switzerland; European peasant costumes; chateaux of France; the most important cities of the British Isles and the continent, have been included in the numerous programs.

One important purpose of the club is to promote friendly relations with foreign countries through a better understanding of life and customs there. This relationship may further a desire to visit these countries, thus a new and interesting viewpoint of our own ancestors has been assumed by the members who have declared themselves highly satisfied with the countries studied under Mrs. Reed. Mrs. Reed has spent many months in Europe. She took a summer course at Oxford University last year. Those who can never visit Europe feel deeply grateful for the intensely interesting knowledge of foreign lands which they have received. Much of the success of the club has been due to the work of the officers who were: President, Emma Frances McFall; vice-president, Justine Smith; secretary-treasurer, Helen Trevey.

GIRL SCOUTS

THE achievement to which the Hilltop Troop of Girl Scouts point with keenest pride is the fact that they are now acting as junior leaders in the elementary schools. Because, despite a heavy curriculum of school duties, they have kept the spirit of Girl Scouting so alive that 25 per cent of the troop is now inspired to help carry on Scouting's high ideals and standards of practical efficiency, the Girl Scouts feel that they have made a great accomplishment—the far-reaching effects of which, in the world of tomorrow cannot be estimated.

Through the efforts of these young teachers, their little sisters are learning the high ideals of the Girl Scout promise—reverence, patriotism, and the joy of service. The Girl Scout slogan, "Do a Good Turn Daily," is an inspiration to helpfulness. The Girl Scout motto, "Be Prepared", is the best possible incentive for gaining the practical knowledge needed in emergencies.

Through Scouting, these girls of today are learning to know and love the out-of-doors, to realize the meaning of responsibility in the home and community, and to understand and observe the laws of health. Moreover, they are learning all this in the joyous play spirit of the fine game of Girl Scouting.

These junior leaders are doing their utmost to help the younger girls of today—the girls who are to be the home-makers, teachers, writers, artists, community leaders, and executive persons in the world of tomorrow—to get their first bearings in the grown-up world. Surely this is an achievement of which to be proud.

THE SKETCH CLUB

THE Sketch Club was organized at the beginning of the fall '26 term by a group of art students who were interested in all kinds of sketching. At the regular club meetings held every other week during advisory period, the club discusses business and plans events for the ensuing two weeks.

Once every two weeks the club meets at the home of one of the members. The evening is spent in sketching, and in making life-drawings of the various members. A number of sketching tours to Balboa Park and other points of artistic interest have been enjoyed by the members of the club. A week-end party at Lyons Valley was the most enjoyable of all these affairs.

Although small, the Sketch Club has been, on the whole, a successful, cooperative group. Many worth while things have been accomplished during the year, and the club has proved to be very interesting.

The officers for the first semester were: President, Stuart Jerabek; vice-president, Gelene Osborne; secretary, Erma Beach. The present semester's officers are president, Stuart Jerabek; vice-president, Gelene Osborne; secretary, Dorothy Kuhn; and treasurer, Alice May Howard. The sponsor of this club is Miss Rosialee Kerley of the Art Department.

The Printers' Club and Gray Castle Post

SINCE the organization of the Printers' Club in September, 1925, many things have been accomplished under the leadership of the faculty advisor, Clarence E. Romer. At present out of the one hundred seventy students taking printing in Mr. Romer's classes, forty-five enjoy the privilege of belonging to this club.

The aim of this organization has been to promote a greater understanding between the art of printing and the student. This has been done very successfully as many discussions and talks have been given at the meetings about subjects which could not ordinarily be explained during class time.

During the past semester many enjoyable social events and picnics have taken

The Gray Castle Post has been published monthly for the past two years. Primarily it was strictly a technical magazine of twelve pages, but during the past two semesters the Post has organized a system whereby all departments in the school are represented. The staff of the Post, which is responsible for a large part of its success is: Boswell Willis, editor; Pauline Young and Marie Haines, assistant editors and Watson Culver, managing editor.

Another important feature of the Club is the semi-annual publication of the Joke Book, of which Max Wilson is editor. The sale of this magazine constitutes the entire revenue, there being no dues in the Printers' Club.

The officers of the Printers' Club are: James Neyenesch, president; Clarence O'Marra, vice-president, Awilda Perry, secretary and treasurer; Ora Rickerson, manager.

VARIETY CLUB

LIVING up to its name by carrying out a varied program of activities, the Variety Club, originally the Hiking Club, has just completed its second successful year. Last semester it was again sponsored by Mr. Homuth.

The Variety Club is the only organization in the school which embraces a host of interests—hiking, riding, swimming, and dancing are just a few of its wholesome activities. Instead of the old idea of one phase of outdoor life this society participates in all athletic diversions.

Handicapped by a late start and difficulties in organizing, the club soon stepped into line and carried out numerous projects. Several trips to El Monte Park, to the Lagunas just after a snow storm, hikes to Mission Gorge and to Murray Dam, a dance at Alpine, and several aquaplaning trips to the Coronado Islands were among the list of activities enjoyed by the members of the club.

Transportation, when necessary, was varied, the number of cars being limited, but not their capacity.

Differing from last year, new members appeared for each excursion, and from ten to forty members enjoyed each of the trips. The total membership was about sixty. Miss Rosas and Miss Hollingshead of the faculty were chaperones.

Officers for the past term were: Marshall Rutherford, president; Joe Cohen, vice-president; Eugene Clardy, treasurer, and Julius Sanders, secretary.

ARCHERY CLUB

WITH an unusual amount of pep and enthusiasm the future Robin Hoods have just completed their second happy and successful year.

In October these amateur archers ventured into the mountains in search of big game. They camped at Silver Crest on Palomar for two days, and on returning to their native village related such thrilling adventures to their friends that their hair rose on end. In order to keep up the bluff the archers held a big Hot Dog Sale—meat killed on said hunting trip—mostly bologny. This sale was such a howling success that another was held shortly afterward to the great satisfaction of the honorable student-body. With the money secured from the sales the Archers bought a new four-foot target—now in a glass case on display in the Woodshop. It is to be hoped that the target will be used next fall.

The sponsor of this club is Mr. Kittredge. The officers are: president, Robert Leonard; vice-president, William Carver; secretary, Peggy Gittings; treasurer, Eddie Heuss; reporter, Meda Watt.

Note: As this article was going to press, the reporter got a "scoop" on two big hunting trips. The thrilling adventures experienced on these outings will be published in a set of six volumes entitled "How to Hunt Big Game with the Bow and Arrow," by the Archers of the Gray Castle.

GIRLS' TENNIS CLUB

URING the past semester the Girls' Tennis Club has become an active, peppy organization.

Sue DeCamp and Eugenia Donnelly were the club's outstanding players at the beginning of the fall term when the club was small. The officers were: Margaret Bates, president; Dorothy Hale, vice-president; Bernice Dove, secretary; and Katherine Doneney, treasurer.

The present officers of the club are: President, Abbie Jean Bush; vice-president, Helen Dumne; treasurer, Joan Rustamier; and secretary, Eugenia Donnelly. Miss Greer is Faculty advisor.

The membership of the Girls' Tennis Club has grown rapidly this year, and has now reached about twenty-five. A tournament is to be held at the end of the term, when the winner will be awarded a suitable prize. Catherine Predmore, Margaret Smith, Katherine Doneney, Joyce Bryenton, Bobbie Hamlin, Loraine Spratt, Alma Irving, Joan Rustamier, Abbie Jean Bush, Harriet Atwell, Eleanor Agnew, Bernice Bugg, Christine Bush, Bernice St. Clair, Florence Willmott, Eugenia Donnelly, Laura Sylvia, Lois Colman, and Mabel Smallwood are the members of the club who are competing in the tournament.

AQUATIC CLUB

THE Gray Castle Aquatic Club is one of the largest clubs at the Hilltop. The club was organized in '23 and from that time forth has been one of the peppiest and most enthusiatic clubs here in the high school. Meetings are held at the Mission Beach Plunge every Friday night at seven-thirty. After a short meeting there is fun for all in the big pool. Water polo is one of the main events of each Friday evening.

The Club meetings on Fridays are not the only activity of this organization. Parties are given during the year which are a great success. This year there have been hay rides, beach parties, and aquaplaning parties on the Glorietta. Aquaplaning is very popular among the members.

At the end of the year two handsome loving cups will be given to two successful members of the club. The boy having the highest number of points for the year will receive one cup; the girl having the highest number of points will win the other. The point system is arranged so that each member of the club has an equal chance for the trophy.

It is through the keenness of the president, Bob Garrison, that the club has been such a success this year. The sponsors, Coach Perry and Coach Broderick have also contributed much to the success of the G. C. A. C. during the peppiest and most successful year of its organization.

BOXING AND WRESTLING CLUB

THE Boxing and Wrestling Club is one of the best known boys' clubs at the San Diego High School, having come into existence through the efforts of Mr. Smith, the club sponsor, several years before the origin of the present day clubs.

Under the able leadership of the club's officers, namely Virgil Haulman, president; Earl Ransen, vice-president and Hector Cantu, secretary, the club today has a larger membership than ever before. The Boxing and Wrestling Club boasts of its membership that practically every member of the Varsity Wrestling squad this year is a member of the club.

The members of the club are anticipating the usual good time at the club's annual smelt hunt which has been planned for the full of the moon early in May.

Now that the San Diego High School is represented in the league by a Wrestling team, the members of the club will devote their enthusiasm and interest toward building a S. D. H. S. Boxing Team.

OFFICERS' CLUB

AS A CLIMAX to the greatest semester of activity in the R. O. T. C. Officers' Club, the Annual R. O. T. C. Ball under the auspices of this club was held last week at the American Legion Hall. All the officers, non-commissioned officers, privates and their guests attended. It was the biggest dance of the school year with the exception of the A. S. B. Ball.

Under the able direction of Cadet-Colonel Donald Knapp, many activities have been undertaken, and much more has been accomplished this semester than during the previous year.

Club meetings were held during the activity periods, generally on the Thursdays that regular clubs did not meet. This was done so that each officer could attend another club on the regular club day.

Medals were presented by the club to the winners of the annual manual of arms competition, which was held as part of the annual competition drill which was sponsored by the American Legion. These medals were given only to students who could handle a rifle with absolute ease.

The officers for the club this semester were: Colonel Donald Knapp, president; Captain Paul Bellamy, vice-president; Captain Clive Buttemere, secretary, and First Lieutenant Warren Anderson, treasurer.

REGIMENTAL AND BATTALION STAFF

R. O. T. C.

THE Reserve Officers' Training Corps, more commonly known as the R. O. T. C., with an approximate enrollment of 300 khaki-clad boys, has, during the past year, under the able leadership of Colonel John Hall and Colonel Donald Knapp, made much headway in raising the caliber of one of the largest organizations in school.

Handicapped during the Spring semester by the fact that no regular drill-ground was available for practice during class periods, because the stadium, the regular drill-ground was being turfed, the R. O. T. C. turned out one of the best drilled units in its history. In the annual competition held on the lawn June 10, the winning company, the best-drilled man in the unit, the best drilled non-commissioned officer received trophies. The captain of the winning company received a silver loving-cup and a regulation army sabre. A crack platoon, which was organized at the beginning of the year, was regretfully abandoned because of lack of time for drilling. The Rifle Team, which participated in a number of telegraphic rifle matches with schools in the ninth corps area, showed up well in comparative scores. Among the high schools participating was the Salt Lake High School. The R. O. T. C. represented the High School in both the Armistice and Memorial Day parades.

The sponsor for the Regimental and Battalion Staff, Miss Betty Clough, Miss Mabel Lee, sponsor for Company A, Miss Mildred Arnold sponsor for Company B, Miss Maurice Burrows, sponsor for Company C, Miss Irene Schreiber, sponsor for Company D, and Miss Evelyn Beers, sponsor for Company E, acted as hostesses at the annual R. O. T. C. ball held in the American Legion building under the auspices of the Officers' Club, June 3.

At the beginning of next semester, all commissioned and non-commissioned officers must pass a written examination before promotions will be granted. As all officers must also maintain the scholarship regulations required of any A. S. B. officer, the standards and morale of the officers and, consequently. of the whole R. O. T. C. will be raised.

IITH San Diego High holding a prominent place on the gridiron during the 1926 season, the Coast League was marked with the closest and most spirited competition since its formation several years ago. Every game was hard-fought and the margin of victory was small; for example, in the game between Long Beach, winner of the league title, and South Pasadena, who ended up in last place, the score was 3 to 0.

In the first league game of the season the Cavemen met the Alhambra Moors in the stadium. Over half of the student body of the northern school came down to support its team, and the attendance and spirit resembled that of college football. After a terrific struggle the Hilltoppers emerged victorious with the score reading 6 to 3. Glendale played host to the local team in the second game of the season. At the end of the second half of this game neither team had scored. The new tie playoff rule was then given its first trial. The ball being placed in the center of the field, each team was given five alternate plays, the eleven making the most yardage winning the game. In a thrilling playoff San Diego succeeded in pushing the ball one yard into the Dynamiter's territory, thus winning the game by a score of 2 to 0.

The next week the Pasadena team confidently journeyed south to meet the Gray Castle eleven, but their highly touted squad was turned back by the score of 6 to 0. In the biggest upset of the year Whittier conquered the Hillmen 15 to 3 the following Saturday. Although the Perrymen were leading 3 to 0 at the end of the half, during the second period they crumbled before the Poets.

Long Beach was the Hilltoppers' opponent in the sixth and most important game of the season. Nearly a thousand students made the trip to the Northern city to support the team. The Jackrabbits scored a field goal and a touchdown to win the contest 10 to 0, practically cinching the championship for them.

Finishing the season in a blaze of glory, Coach Perry's squad defeated Santa Ana 9 to 7 by virtue of the extra playoff period. Coach "Tex" Oliver's Saints uncovered a brilliant running attack but were unable to hold the heavy Hillers in the playoff. It was a wonderful game of football and brought back memories of the 1925 San Diego-Santa Ana struggle.

With five victories and two defeats to their credit, San Diego ranked second in the league standing, being topped only by Long Beach. As Coach John Hobbs, who will be heading the varsity coaching staff next fall, will have five lettermen and several second string players returning, the prospects for a formidable 1927 eleven appear bright.

CLASS B FOOTBALL

FOR the second time in the history of the Gray Castle, a Class B Gridiron eleven was barely edged out of a league championship when Coach Glenn Broderick's 1926 squad ended the season in a tie for leading position, only to lose out by a close 5 to 3 game lost to Pasadena. The Pasadenians were defeated by Glendale, a school humbled by the Hillmen 7 to 3, but won the title as a result of their victory over San Diego.

In two pre-season practice games, Coach Broderick's men scored crushing victories over the Calexico and St. Augustine Varsities by scores of 19 to 0 and 20 to 0 respectively. Fresh from their formidable showings, the Bees entered the first round of league battle, and in the next two weeks scored victories of 20 to 7 and 7 to 3 over Alhambra and Glendale.

Then came the Cavemen's only taste of bitter defeat. Gaining but a 2 point margin by virtue of the tie playoff, Pasadena High copped by a 5 to 3 tally in a torrid struggle staged on the Crown city gridiron. The following week, however, San Diego's fighting little Bees came through to score a decisive 20 to 0 victory over Whittier, and the next Saturday Long Beach suffered a like fate by the same score.

South Pasadena was the next school to fall before the sweeping invasion of the powerful Hilltop machine. The Tiger kittens bowed under a 38 to 7 lacing. Then, in the final tussle of the closely-battled 1926 league schedule, the Gray Castle lightweight squad dealt out a thorough 38 to 6 defeat to Santa Ana.

weight squad dealt out a thorough 38 to 6 defeat to Santa Ana.

Under the leadership of Coach Broderick, the Class B team developed into one of the most potential scoring elevens of the Coast loop. In the nine games of the year, San Diego tallied a total of 185 points to the opponents' 34. Marcello "Toddy" Sanchez, in the backfield, proved one of the most outstanding players of the year, showing up well both with his fast open field work and heavy line-plunging ability.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

STARTING the year under the handicap that the San Diego High faces every basketball season—the lack of adequate facilities for practice—Coach John Hobbs built up a quintet that in early practice tilts showed promises of being one of the most potential contenders for the 1927 Coast League Championship. Because the Hilltop squad scored five defeats over strong teams of the city before the opening of the league, followers of the cage sport expected a successful season.

of the league, followers of the cage sport expected a successful season.

Then came the change of tide. The quintet put up a creditable fight against Alhambra, but emerged at the end of the game on the short end of an 11 to 9 score. In the Glendale clash the following week the Hobbsmen suffered a similar experience, losing to the Dynamiters 19 to 21. In rapid succession the Hillmen next dropped the following games: Pasadena, 42 to 17; Whittier, 26 to 13; and Long Beach, 27 to 14.

The next game with South Pasadena was cancelled. Finally, in the last tussle of the season, the Hillmen hung up a decisive 30 to 13 victory over Santa Ana. At the close of the season the squad again broke into the form that it had lacked during the league contests. Defeating their opponents in true championship style, they won the San Diego A. A. U. Class A cage division title.

Steve Fletcher, who was high-point man with 28 for the season, consistently played an outstanding game, and was a dead shot on the basket as well as an airtight player who showed an ability to dribble his way through an entire opposing team. Johnson, with 21 points, was another man of exceptional talent. Other team members and their points were, McRae, 18; Gundry, 17; West, 10; Ranney, 8; Joerndt, 2; and Donohue, 2. Donohue and West are the only men Coach Hobbs will lose from his 1928 squad.

By the final standing of the league the Gray Castle five ended in a deadlock with South Pasadena for sixth place, but by comparative scores the locals looked stronger than the Tigers.

CLASS B BASKETBALL

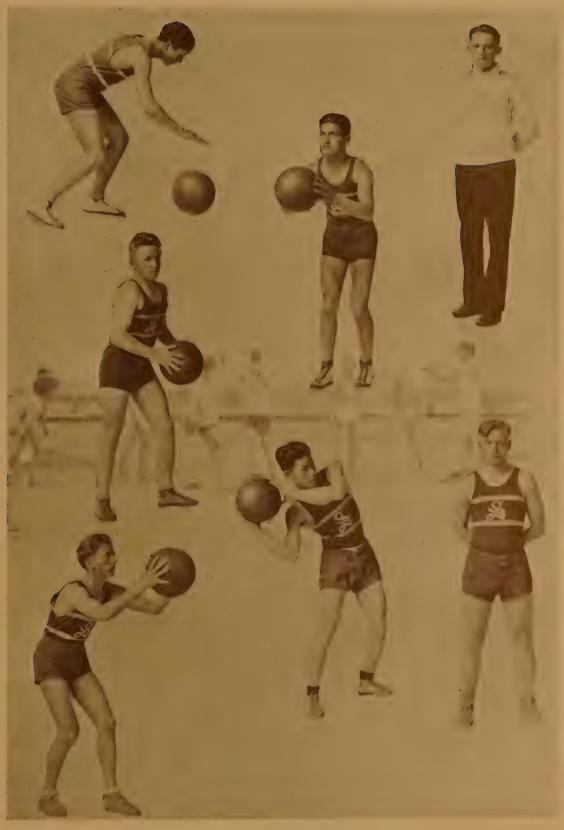

A FTER missing one year in the Coast League contests, Class B Basketball came into its own again during the 1926-27 season by winning first place in the league. With but one letterman remaining from the squad of two years before, it was necessary for Coach Dewey Morrow to form practically a new squad, and he did it successfully.

Although under the handicap of poor facilities for practice, the squad won consistently. Alhambra was turned back in the first league game by a 24 to 16 score. The school began to realize that it had a team of championship caliber when, in the following games, Glendale and Pasadena were beaten by scores of 16 to 10 and 20 to 14 respectively. The lightweights also nosed out Whittier in a close game, the score being 18 to 14.

The following week the morale of the team dropped somewhat, and a close contest was lost to the Long Beach Bunnies by 16 points. The squad came back strongly, however, in the next game, and conquered the Santa Ana five by a 20 to 18 score.

In the meantime Long Beach had dropped a game, and so was tied with San Diego for first place with six wins and one defeat. By playing a wonderful game of basketball in the playoff for the championship, the Hilltoppers won by four points. The final score was 21 to 17.

The following day the squad was forced to meet Grossmont in a Southern California elimination game and was beaten 19 to 20. This close game terminated the highly successful season which brought the Class B Basketball Coast League trophy to the Gray Castle for the first time.

TRACK

THE '27 Track team of the Gray Castle, despite the fact that it started the season with only two lettermen, made a very commendable showing. Glenn Broderick, coaching track for the first time at the Hilltop, gradually developed a team which at the end of the season placed third in the state meet out of a field of over a hundred high schools.

The individual stars of the team made a number of good records. Bert Ritchey ran the high hurdles in 15 flat to get second in the state meet; in the same meet Billy Miller won the pole vault at a height of twelve feet. During the entire track season Sam Kinsley vied with Miller in the pole vault, and reached the height of eleven feet six inches. Leslie Airhart negotiated the 440 in 51:4; during the season Charlie Snider proved himself to be an excellent miler by running the distance in 4:35; Harry Jones was a consistent half-miler who could always be depended on to add several points to the score. Jimmie Brown made eight points in the mile; Joe Dobbins made 21 feet in the broad jump; George Medlicott made his letter in the 440 and was a valuable man on the relay; Bob Limon proved a capable hurdler who should develop into a champion next season; Captain Dick Sinclair defeated all comers in the high jump and proved a very capable leader; Cy West and Mike Dini were the outstanding weightmen of the squad.

The relay team, composed of Griffin, Medlicott, Airhart, and Rens, ran the four furlongs in 132 which, incidentally, was the world's interscholastic record three years ago.

The team of '27 proved a strong, well-balanced squad, and prospects are bright for another powerful squad next year.

ALTHOUGH at the beginning of the '27 season, baseball chances looked slim because of a lack of veteran letter-men, Coach Dewey Morrow, in his first year at the Hilltop, produced one of the most potential baseball teams in the sporting annals of the San Diego High. Losing only to Alhambra in the first start of the seasonal ball play, the Hillmen won the remainder of the games to place second in the final Coast League standings.

Following the 8 to 1 defeat by the strong Alhambra Nine, Coach Morrow's charges next downed Glendale High 4 to 0 on the local field. Then, after a long trip north to Pasadena, the Hillmen edged out a 2 to 1 victory in the closest game of the season. The long trip to the north seemed to handicap the Morrowmen greatly.

The next Saturday Whittier fell before the Hilltoppers 14 to 3 in a slow, uninteresting exhibition on the Service diamond. Long Beach then came to San Diego with a record of decisive victories that made them heavy favorites. In the game, however, San Diego showed exceptional form and completely crushed the Beachmen, 9 to 3.

At South Pasadena, the Gray Castle squad hung up another overwhelming defeat over the northerners, winning by an 11 to 4 score. In the final clash of the year, Coach Morrow's men again triumphed, this time over Santa Ana.

Frank Dobranski, veteran pitcher, and probably the best pitcher in the league, held his opponents to but few and scattered hits throughout the schedule. Dobranski was well backed in the fielding. Villarino, in the outfield, Captain Chet Harritt on third base, and Ashley Joerndt, centerfielder, also showed well in the year's games. Other lettermen were: Clarkson, catcher; Pierson, first base; Ramage second base; Pappert, short stop; McNeely, right fielder; Dobbins, third base; and Tyler, in the outfield.

STARTING the season with but one veteran back from last year, and handicapped by the lack of a coach during the latter part of the season, eight Hill-top netsters tied for second place in the Coast League pennant race with Alhambra and Pasadena. After a few months of diligent training under the supervision of ex-Coach Edgar Johnston, the Hilltop racket wielders soon developed into a formidable team which dropped but two tilts out of the seven league matches.

Still green at the time of the first match, Alhambra downed Johnston's men 11 to 6 after a tough battle. Pasadena, led by Captain Ellsworth Vines, Southern California boy champ, invaded San Diego and went home with the short end of an 11 to 6 score. Whittier fell to the powerful Hillmen by a 17 to 0 count, and after that victory Alhambra, Pasadena, and San Diego were in tie for first position. The championship Glendale squad upset the title aspirations of the locals by downing them 11 to 6 in a torrid match. After a long hot ride the Hilltoppers, playing in a temperature of 105, lost, after nearly every match had gone three sets. However, Long Beach, South Pasadena, and Santa Ana proved easy meat for the Gray Castle court stars.

In the annual Ojai tournament and the Coast League tournament competition, the locals made fine showings. The team members were: Capt, Arthur Ribbel. Hugh McArthur, Harold Towsley, Wilber Folsom, Miles Crafton, Dan Kammeyer, Joe Kirshbaum, Philip Hanna, Donald Barley, and Manager Lovell Williams.

WRESTLING

WITH the passing of football and basketball from the center of athletic popularity at the Gray Castle, there came, along with track, a new athletic venture to claim the attention of sports followers of San Diego. This was the High School's entry into the newly formed Coast League wrestling circuit.

Under the lead of Coach John M. Perry, the Hilltop developed a formidable team that forged its way unscathed through the six league tournaments of the year, winning the Coast League title. Then, in the San Diego county A. A. U. tourney, the Hillmen tied for first place with the local Y. M. C. A., taking three championships and four second places.

In rapid order, always with decisive scores, the San Diego team defeated the following Coast League schools: Long Beach Poly, 24 to 5; Whittier, 24 to 3; Fullerton, 25 to 0; Alhambra, 22 to 5; Wilson High of Long Beach, 14 to 9; and Glendale, 20 to 5.

The lettermen of the 1927 season are as follows: 112 lbs—Charles Daly; 118 lbs.—Richard Couchman and Reginald Hill; 125 lbs.—Harry Sheffield and Virgil Neely; 135 lbs.—Baxter Geeting and Walter Currier; 145 lbs.—Earl Ranson and Lawrence Loomis; 158 lbs.—Virgil Haulman; heavyweights, Nelson Fisher and Dale Campbell. Much of the credit for San Diego's splendid showing is due to the excellent trainer and manager, Frank DeBus, whose training and encouragement in all the meets helped more than one man change a probable defeat to victory.

VARSITY "S" CLUB

ONE of the leading clubs of the Hilltop this past year has been the Varsity "S" club, an organization composed of the boys of the school who have won an "S" for participation in any of the four major sports.

The club, dormant during the first semester, organized after the completion of the football season, and the past term has undoubtedly been one of the liveliest sessions of the club since its origin in 1916.

Thirty-five members comprised the roster this year, the greatest majority of members being track men. George Herrick, track '26, was elected president; Victor Buono, track '25, took the chair of vice-president, and Richard Sinclair, track '26, carried the brunt of the work as secretary-treasurer.

The only social function of the organization was its annual matinee dance held on May 13. Despite the superstitious setting of this date, a great turnout greeted the affair, as every year this is a function eagerly looked forward to by members of the entire student body.

During the spring term a constitution was drawn up with the aid of Mr. William Schaefer and is kept on permanent file in the secretary's office. It was agreed upon in a clause of this document that the four coaches be voted in as honorary members as well as Mr. C. W. McMichael, faculty sponsor of athletics as well as Mr. C. W. McMichael, faculty sponsor of athletics.

One of the distinctive features of the club this year was the admittance of several fellows who have earned the coveted life gold pass. These boys are Cy West, Eddie Moeller, and Bert Ritchey.

San Diego High students have begun to look upon this organization as one of the leading clubs in the Hilltop, for it is comprised of the leaders of the school as well as leaders on the athletic field.

VARSITY "S" CLUB

THE GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

BACK in nineteen twenty-five there was a girls' athletic club which called itself the Girls' Athletic Emblem Association and boasted a total number of thirteen members. Today this club has grown into one of the peppiest and most active organizations in the school. It has been renamed the Girls' Athletic Association and now has more than seventy-five active members. All girls who go out for sports and make at least two points are eligible to join.

The annual social sponsored by the club is the "Dove Ball." The Juniors and Seniors invite the Sophomores, each girl taking another as her partner. The object is to acquaint the Sophomore girls with the upper classmen and to make them feel that someone is interested in them.

Last semester San Diego received the distinction of being elected President of the Girls' Athletic Federation of which nearly every high school in Southern California is a member. Because they received the presidency, the annual conference was held here. The present officers and members planned the G. A. F. Conference which was held here May the seventh. The conference was ably managed and its success was due mainly to the hard work and executive ability displayed by President Belle Kirkland and Miss Himes, the advisor. Other officers of the club are Vice President, Eugenia Donnelly; Secretary, Olive Rickey; Treasurer, Doris Swain.

GIRLS' SPORTS

IRLS' Sports, which are yearly attaining greater success and prominence in J the life of the School, this year have reached a higher peak than ever before. Headed by Captain Marie McFerrin, the scrappy little Sophomore B team fought its way to a championship in volleyball, over the upper classmen.

The Sophomore team was composed of Lucy Aust, Ruby Barfoot, Patricia Blackman, Rose Cabellaro, Dorothy Hale, Mable Long, Mamie Lowe, Minnie Lee Smith, Marjorie Stewart, Lorraine Van Lowe, Esther Wickham, Drucilla Wolfington, Evelyn Wylie, Martina Costo, Barbara Dike, Peggy Elliott and Mary Escudero.

Captained by Eugenia Donnelly, the Juniors won this year's basketball championship by a large margin, due to the splendid team-work developed during the season.

This speedy little team was composed of, Forwards, Belle Kirkland, Estelle Simpson, Sue De Camp; Centers, Barbara Kellerby, Olive Rickey; Guards, Captain Eugenia Donnelley and Margaret Bates.

Although the Juniors won by a 7 to 6 score, the Juniors and Seniors were very evenly matched in Hockey this year. Players, and their positions, were:

while the 2A's came in second, and the 2 B's came in third.

Those who won points toward their letters were, Belle Kirkland, V. B. for accuracy; Elvina Browning, indoor for accuracy; B. B. Relay team, Margaret Bates, Dorothy Beck, Bernice Dove and Belle Kirkland. Race against time, Phyllis Carter, Estelle Simpson, Enda Wright, Pat Purcell and Elvina Browning.

Overhand pitching led to more curves and hits this year than ever before in the girls' baseball games. The Gym department purchased smaller balls for the games this season and gloves for the catchers.

Two American boys, wandering through

BLESSINGS
(With apologies to Whittier)
Blessings on thee, little sheik?
Hotter than a lightnin' streak:
With Oxford bags and empty head,
Socks and ties of flaming red:
With marcelled hair, grease galore,
The latest perfume from the store;
With the talcum on thy face,
And thy cane to lend thee grace,
From my heart there bursts with joy,
Glad—that I am not a boy.

JUST HER SIZE

For all the years of her short life Mary had been the pet of her aunt. When auntie bought herself any little luxury, there was a small one like it for Mary.

Once it was an umbrella, then a parasol, and then a dear little armchair.

Mary eyed the visitor keenly for a moment, then she said: "I like him, auntie: but where's yours?"

What a Bank Can Do for You

HE Picture is about to shift from the pursuit of academic knowledge . . . to an environment in which the pursuit of a livelihood will perhaps be the dominant urge.

Into this new picture there should come at the earliest possible moment, a banking institution, if your pursuit of a livelihood is to be successful.

The bank which you choose, can be simply a place in which you keep your money . . . or it can be a great deal more.

Bankers, from the very nature of their business, accumulate a wide variety of information concerning practically every line of commercial endeavor. This knowledge is extremely valuable and you should know that your Banker stands ever ready to share this information with you freely.

At the beginning, therefore, open an account with some bank and discuss freely any and all business matters with your banker. He can and wants to help you.

"How thrilling! Here's a letter from that big meat costumer."
"Meat costumer? What's that?"
"Oh, he's the fellow who makes the paper panties that go on the lamb chops!"

THE VERBALIST

THE VERBALIST
You see a beautiful girl walking down the street. She is, of course feminine. If she is singular, you become nominative. You walk across to her, changing the verbal and become dative. If she is not objective you become plural. You walk home together. Her mother is accusative and you become imperative. Her brother is an indefinite article. You walk in and sit down. You talk of the future and she changes the subject. You kiss her and she becomes objective. Her father becomes present and you become a past participle.

Girl (slightly stout): "My mother says I'm growing beautiful."

The Brute (regarding her): "You mean beautifully."

Sap: "My wife explored my pockets last night."

Dunce: "What did she get?"
Sap: "About the same as any other explorer—enough material for a lecture."

"Stay away from those sailors. Don't you know they have girls in every port?"

"They've nothing on you high school boys. You've girls on every davenport."

A rattling flivver gathereth no wimmen.

Clara K.: "Let's go out and get some apples now."

Jerry: "What kind do we want, Baldwins?"

Clara K.: "Sure. Did you think I wanted some with hair on?"

"When you kiss me, dear, I'd trust you with anything, even my wallet. What do you think of that?"

"I think there's nothing in it."

Country Boy: "Naw, I ain't sellin' this big trout mister. Yer ain't got money enough to buy it."

City Angler: "Well, at least, let me measure it, so I can truthfully say how big the trout was that got away from me."
